[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO OCT 4

French Loss in the Late Battle

LONDON, Oct. ...—Another account from Paris says the French lost in the engagement of September ... 1,700 killed and wounded. Among the wounded was Gen. Guilhem. Three hundred prisoners were also taken. The French forts were almost silent Saturday and Sunday.

Attitude of Russia

VIENNA, Oct. 3.—The Revue says the alarming news about Russian war preparations is untrue. Gen. Ignatieff is still at Constantinople. Russia makes no war whatever. The relations between Russia and Austria leave nothing to be desired.

Military Movements

CHARTRES (via Tours), Oct. 3.—Prussians have arrived near Pattia, in the Department of Loire, and also approached Epernon in strong force but retreated before the mobiles.

NEUF CHATEAU, Sept. 29, via Tours, Oct. 3.—One thousand Prussian cavalry passed Verd today. It is said they go to join the corps of 100,000 now forming at Toul. The German army which recently crossed the Rhine near Mulhausen is marching on Soblestadt and will occupy the entrance to the valley of St. Marie aux Mines.

Admiral Fourichon has resigned the portfolio of war but remains in the Cabinet as head of the Navy.

TOURS, Oct. 3.—Miresenoux acts as delegate and Minister of War in place of Fourichon, resigned.

ORLEANS, via Tours, Oct. ?—The enemy is concentrating at Toury. Pithiviers is still occupied by the enemy, who are pillaging all the environs.

BASLE, Oct. 3.—Prussians, with the aid of electric lights, were all night crossing the Rhine at Mulhausen.

A Circular from Bismarck

BERLIN, Oct. 3.—Bismarck has issued a circular to the Prussian resident ministers abroad. He insists that the conditions of the proposed armistice were moderate. The French, he says, declined them altogether, with the offered opportunity of an election to the constituent assembly in departments held by Prussians which the latter believe would have favored peace.

Prussian Remonstrance to England—Letter from Napoleon

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A World special says: It is asserted to-day that the Prussian government has addressed a final remonstrance to England on the subject of her refusal to prohibit the exportation of arms for the supply of France.

A letter from Napoleon to King William, dated Sept. 26, says: The time has arrived for him to speak. The duel between Germany and France can only terminate in complete ruin or a loyal reconciliation of both powers. The Emperor adds: Since his interview with the King of Prussia at Sedan that it convinced him that the King would prefer alliance to ruin. Surely it only remains to ... the means of accomplishing this object.

Affairs about Metz

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A special from Metz on the 3d says: A Prussian cavalry battery at Longeau in front of Metz ... destroyed with shells a French bridge across the Moselle. Shells were fired into the Valley of Moulins near Metz. Last night the Prussians made a dash into the village of Nouilly in front of the French positions, and wholly consumed it. It contained stores for a garrison ... the locality, of which the villagers refused to ... and the Prussians burned the village and stores together.

Advices from Paris

PARIS, Sept. 27—via LONDON, Oct. 3.—The following is official:

The Barricade Commission has been completed by the adding of M. Albert, formerly a member of the Provisional Government, to the commission, which now contains nine engineers.

General Dispatches

BERLIN, Oct. 3.—The North German Gazette to-day announced the heavy shipments of breadstuffs have been made from America to supply the French, and says that on Sept. 28th a French steamer brought twenty-six Enfield cannon and one thousand rifles and cartridges for the French army.

A pacific movement has been commenced at Stuttgardt in favor of the adhesion of Wurtemberg to North Germany.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Advices from ... state that the Prussians have pushed their scouts beyond Vitguil and Draucy.

The French gunboats on the Seine have fired on the Prussians burning the woods at Bolencourt.

Firing from the Forts DeLest and St. Dennis has dislodged the Prussians from Chateau De St. Aine and Lebourget.

The Prussians have thrown up works at Dagny.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 3.—The sessions of the Rigsdag were opened to-day by the King, who in his speech congratulated the country on the maintenance of neutrality by Denmark.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—At a Cabinet Council held to-day it was decided that as the Chinese government had refused to make reparation for the massacres at Tientsin as demanded of it by the French representatives, and as the Chinese government is obviously making preparations for a general war upon foreigners, England must join the French in exacting full reparation for these outrages and other fresh outrages. It is believed that Russia will act with other Powers in the matter.

Fire from the Paris Forts

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Prussians assert that the fire from the forts around Paris is quite vigorous at times, but quite harmless.

It is said that Alex. Dumas, Sr., is dying at Dieppe.

The Flood in Virginia

RICHMOND, Oct. 3.—The flood has gone down. It is thought a half million dollars will not cover the losses in the city. In the towns above here the damage is greater.

AFTON (near Greenwood), Va., Oct. 3.—Accounts from Albemarle county say the destruction of property from the flood is immense and many lives are lost. The flood in some instances swept away entire families. Many lives were lost in Albemarle county, as far as heard from, fourteen. The destruction of grain, tobacco barns, cattle, hogs, houses and mills is incalculable. About fifty mills and dams are destroyed. The freshet was confined within a radius of the upper valley of Virginia.

Suppose, cries the Pall Mall Gazette, the French Republic, eager to wipe out the disgrace of the present war, should some day help the American Republic to avenge the Alabama wrongs, and then suppose the Fenians should take a hand in the fight (as they surely would want to), and suppose another republic should rise up in Spain and insist on having Gibraltar, and suppose on the top of all this Russia should crowd us to the wall in Asia—what a pretty pickle England would be in.

It is stated at the Treasury Department that the President has decided to make a number of changes in the Missouri offices, based upon the support some of the latter are giving to the B... Brown movement.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Doubtful Rumor—France Everywhere Arming.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—A special at Oxford telegraphs that there is great irritation at Berlin on account of what the Prussians regard as a violation of neutrality by the United States in permitting shipments of munitions from New York to French ports. It is stated Prussia has demanded explanations and an apology from the American Minister.

A special at Bologne sends word from Tours that the south part of France is under arms. A great number of troops have arrived at Tours within the past week from Bordeaux and Marseilles. The towns of Loire, Angres, Saumur and Nantes are crowded with soldiers, and drilling goes on incessantly. The towns on the Rhone from Lyons to Avignon and Artes have assumed the aspect of a camp. Borges is in the same condition. No thought of peace seems to be anywhere entertained.

American Officers in France—Bull Run Russell Snubbed.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Gen. Beauregard, Gen. Hazen and Col. Forbes, after much diplomacy have obtained special permission from the King of Prussia to visit Paris. They carry their own flag of truce and go at their own risk.

A good deal of indignation is excited here by the publication of Count Von Bismarck's statement, over his own signature, charging Mr. Russell with falsehood. The matter will not be suffered to drop here. It is understood that this method will be adopted by the Prussian Government for disavowing a number of other alleged conversations with Bismarck heretofore published anonymously.

Attack on Tours Threatened.

TOURS, Oct. 4.—A Prussian force which recently crossed the Rhine near Mulhausen has arrived at Challemagne.

A Prussian detachment was yesterday driven out of Artenay.

Evidently a movement is on foot on the part of the enemy to attack Tours.

News via Berlin.

FERRIERES, Oct. 3, via Berlin and London, Oct. 4.—Nothing interesting has transpired around Paris. A sortie from Metz on Thursday was repulsed by Gen. Kuhler, with heavy loss to the French.

Attitude of Russia, Again.

VIENNA, Oct. 4.—The Austrian Government again declares its anxiety about Russian designs upon the Danubian principalities.

A Bogus Manifesto.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A manifesto purporting to have been written by the Emperor at Wilhelmshohe on the 26th ult., and which is published here to-day, is unquestionably bogus.

Paris letters received to-day say that the Prussians threaten Point Dejour.

A bombardment of the city from the west is imminent.

Military Movements.

TOURS, Oct. 4.—An encounter recently occurred between a French reconnoitering party and Prussians at Mich's farm, north of Paris; no result is given.

The commanders of forts Montague and De Ivery in the south of Paris report that on the 25th large masses of Prussians were passing west toward Versailles.

There are 150,000 Prussians at Pithevere.

ROUEN, Oct. 4.—The Prussians are at Martes sur Marne in force. They have also approached R...

The Black Flag—Preparations in Paris for Siege.

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—Parisians having ordered that no Prussian prisoners are to be taken because they consume the stores of food in Paris, Prussian commanders have also been directed to take no prisoners.

All the villages around Metz were destroyed by the late cannonade.

Paris letters say that books of great libraries have been moved to cellars. All the windows have been filled with bags of earth, and watchmen have been stationed at Notre Dame to look out for fires.

French Sharpshooters.

LYONS, Oct. 4.—From all parts of France accounts now show that sharpshooters are seriously annoying the enemy.

Dispatch from Tours.

TOURS, Oct. 4.—The postal service continues irregular and uncertain.

Prussians are concentrating at Toul for a movement on Lyons. Energetic measures are being taken to defend the city.

Yellow Fever at New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Further developments in regard to the ravages of yellow fever in New York and suburbs are published to-day. There was one fatal case in Clinton street on Saturday. Other cases are believed to be in the city. Governor's Island is completely quarantined. All communication with it except through the Board of Health is completely cut off. The Board held a secret meeting to-day, which was entirely devoted to consideration of the fever.

WAR MISCELLANY

Justin McCarthy reminds us in his last Galaxy article that McMahon, fresh from his Italian victories, was the official representative of Napoleon at the coronation of the present King of Prussia. The French Marshal was very popular with the Prussians at that time—much more popular than the King himself.

It has been suggested that whatever privations the German armies may have had to endure in their seven weeks' campaign against Paris they have been very plentifully supplied with one luxury—champagne. The whole war has been carried on in a champagne country and the very names of the villages fought for and occupied have seemed familiar from their association with the labels of our wine bottles. The Prussians have had one solace which foreign wine drinkers are never sure of—they have known their champagne to be genuine. From all accounts they have not been sparing in their requisitions upon the country for its principal product, but we have seen no accounts of such intemperate use as to have any effect upon the efficiency of the soldiers.

An officer of the German Sanitary Commission writes to a German paper that the fate of the poor wounded, both French and German, if not cared for immediately, is horrible. If night sets in the brutal inhabitants of the neighborhood sneak over the battle field and tear every bit of clothing from the mangled and wounded sufferers. Too eager to get more prey, those worse than beasts, if they find any rings on the fingers of the wounded men, do not try to strip them off, but cut off the fingers, and all while they fill the mouths of their victims with dirt to stifle their cries. In such a condition, naked, without the least shelter from the night air, the wounded French and Germans are left with their gaping wounds or mangled limbs. What increases the horror of these atrocities is the fact that they are mostly committed by women, girls and boys.

The German soldier is nothing without his sausage. It is of more importance to him than the needle gun or anything else, and the Government acts accordingly. Just now it is supplying the army with a new sort of sausages made of pease meal, ... spices and bacon. When his conglomeration is properly cooked and put in the skin ... each wurst (sausage) ... three ... part ... may serve for three meals. It ... excellent property ... it ... may keep for ... that it needs no further cooking, but only to be placed in hot water to prepare for eating. It is said to be very ... besides nutritious. The fortunate discoverer of this wurst is to receive ... silver groschen apiece for them for the first million, which will amount to 33,333 thalers, and for each wurst afterward one pfenning, that is 2,777 thalers for every million following. In Cologne a number of buildings have been erected in which the manufacture of this army sausage is carried on, employing some 2,600 men. Two hundred butchers alone are engaged in chopping up the necessary bacon.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

SALEM, Monday, Oct. 3, 1870.

SENATE VS. PIG TAILS.

The bill to tax and to regulate the employment of unnaturalized foreigners coming into this State was up in the Senate this afternoon upon its third reading. Mr. Cochran of Lane opened the discussion of the merits of the bill, premising that the balance of the day would be occupied with the debate. He was perfectly willing to tax Chinamen, but he objected to the bill because it imposed the same burdens equally upon all other immigrants from foreign countries. He professed to understand perfectly well that the real object of the bill was to levy burdens upon the Chinese and thus to discourage their immigration. If he had thought it worth while, however, to introduce a bill for such a purpose as that, he said he would have gone at the business directly instead of by indirection, and he would have called his bill by its right title. He predicted that the courts would overthrow the law the first time a test case should be made. He declared that there had already been too much demagoguism on this Chinese question. He did not believe that the Legislature had any right to levy taxes upon immigrants not imposed upon native born citizens, and as a matter of policy he believed the measure to be bad. He was followed by Baldwin, Stout, Fay and Mosher, who declaimed in favor of the bill the usual Democratic twaddle about Chinese "leprosy, foul blot, nuisance, etc., etc." It was the old stump speeches over again, only in a more emaciated form. Neither Stout nor Fay did themselves credit by their speeches. I have heard each of them make a stronger argument. Mr. Baldwin made a strenuous effort to get eloquent and severe on the leprous pig tails, but failed for want of words. He reminded me of the man who had a terrific struggle with his mule and cart load of pumpkins—to get them to the top of a steep hill. Just as, by the liberal use of whip and profanity, he had almost succeeded, the tail board of the cart came out, and down the hill rolled every individual pumpkin. The man tried to vent his rage at this, but soon gave it up because, as he said, he couldn't think of any words that would do the subject justice. So with Baldwin—he couldn't think of words strong enough to express his "pheelinks." I almost was sorry that I couldn't help him to a few choice and expressive epithets; it would have so relieved him, and I don't think it would have hurt John very much. The Republicans contented themselves with listening to the debate among the Democrats, occasionally asking a question of a speaker. There was a rather amusing episode at the close. The bill was put upon its passage and the roll was called, but before the result was announced, Mr. Burch, who had been absent on account of illness, came in and Mr. Mosher asked that he (Burch) should have leave to have his vote recorded. Mr. Cochran objected. Mr. Mosher moved that Burch have leave to vote, and then commenced a parliamentary struggle which I cannot better describe than by calling it a squabble. Before it ended, and just as the President had cut through the shortest way (as it is sometimes found necessary to do on exciting occasions) to the main question, Mr. Mosher, at the request of Mr. Burch, withdrew his motion. So Mr. Burch's name does not yet appear on the roll of honor against the pig tails. I presume he will take an early occasion, however, to show his constituents and the rest of mankind that he is sound on the pig tail question.

PERSONAL—A CORRECTION.

I find that I have in a former letter done Mr. Thompson an injustice—an entirely unintentional one however. I spoke of him as being the only Republican Senator who has not supported Col. Cornelius in his efforts to save the 500,000 acre grant to the school fund, and I left the inference that he was the Republican who voted for the Sandy-Dalles wagon road bill. The journal shows that Mr. Powell voted for the bill and that Mr. Thompson did not vote at all. The latter informs me that he is in favor of securing the land grant to the school fund and that he is opposed to all these wagon road bills. His position is that the land ought to go to the school fund, but that if it is to be used for internal improvements then he is emphatically after his share of it for the improvement of the Falls at Oregon City. I am under the impression that Mr. Powell, too, would prefer to see the grant go to the school fund, though I do not remember to have heard him say so. His votes on various questions indicate it pretty clearly.

THE YAMHILL ELECTION

Has not yet been ordered. I understand that the Committee on Elections have a meeting tonight to consider the matter, and it is likely that we shall hear in a day or two what is to be done. As Watts don't hold over, being elected to fill a vacancy, and as Newby is not a man of any particular importance, it is possible that no election for Yamhill will be held. The session is over half out, and the seat would be worth to Newby only the per diem and mileage, and to the Democrats nothing.

IN THE HOUSE

Nothing of importance has transpired to-day, the afternoon having been devoted to business affecting neither Democracy nor Chinamen.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

There is much talk among some of the members of doing certain things which cannot well be done except through constitutional amendments, or some "artful dodge." A separate Supreme Court, increase of pay, increase of the amount for which the State may go in debt, etc., are among the measures which many of the members desire to reach. The Democracy having been, however, such sticklers against constitution tinkering, I doubt if they can be brought to venture upon tinkering grounds at present, though there is almost a general private expression in favor of changes in the respects I have mentioned.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A liberal Oregon mist has been falling here nearly all day.

The railroad trains attracted a very large crowd at the depot yesterday, many of them having come from a distance in the country.

Mr. Pershbaker of Coos and Curry is still living, but in a very low condition and without hope of recovery. He was thought yesterday to be dying, but he rallied again.

The town is getting full of roughs and doubtful characters who have arrived in anticipation of the State Fair. Several burglarious attempts have lately been made. Spud Murphy got into the calaboose yesterday for fighting.

Mr. Bates opened the New Oro Fino Theater (formerly the Wigwam) to-night. I hear that notwithstanding the rain he has a full house.

The Bird troupe are playing at the Opera House to only a fair business.

Chills and fever is still prevailing to a considerable extent in this city.

WEDNESDAY MORNING OCTOBER 5 1870.

Receipts and Expenditures

A brief statement recently issued by the Treasury Department showing the financial operations of the Government during the last eighteen months and comparing the same with the operations of the final eighteen months of the preceding Administration tells the story of efficiency economy and honesty in a way so plain and forcible that no one dares to question it. The carping of the opposition is utterly silenced by this complete yet brief and perfectly intelligible statement. For instance the increase of revenue for eighteen months under the present Administration as compared with the preceding eighteen months under Johnson is $87,213 866. This increase was obtained without increasing the taxes on anything, but with a decrease of taxes on many articles. Here is proof positive of honesty and efficiency. Again, the expenditures of these eighteen months under Grant are less by $82,853,060 than the expenditures of the preceding period under his predecessor. Hence we see that the amount gained by increase of receipts and decrease of expenditures has been as follows:

From increase of receipts	$87 213 765 60
From decrease of expenditures	82 853 060 7
Total	$170 066 826 37

The following shows the reduction in the interest account

The amount of interest paid from September 1, 1867, to March 1, 1869, was	$217 221 716 68
The amount of interest paid from March 1, 1869, to September 1, 1870, was	199 421 155 00
Showing a net decrease on interest account of	$17 800 561 68

And the following the reduction of the public debt.

The reduction of the public debt from September 1, 1867, to March 1, 1869, was	$1,383,460 67
The reduction of the public debt from March 1, 1869, to September 1, 1870, was	169,542 109 60
Showing an increase in the reduction of the public debt of	$168 158 648 93

During the eighteen months from March 1 1869, to September 1, 1870, the amount of reduction in the public debt has been, as above shown, $169,542 109 60, most of which has been in the purchase and cancellation of bonds bearing interest in coin, and in the payment of obligations overdue and converting into interest-bearing bonds or certificates

To the reduction indicated above there should be added for the month of September a further reduction of over $9,000 000. The amount of interest which will hereafter be saved to the Government on the debt actually paid since Grant became President is nearly $10,000,000 annually mostly in gold

The present administration stands on its record and is invincible. That Grant will be re-elected on this record is morally certain. His Administration is unassailable, and the enemies of the Republican party have no ground to stand on

An Ancient Sovereignty Extinguished.

Cable dispatches published yesterday show that the formal act by which the papal territory is to be united to the kingdom of Italy has been consummated. As might have been expected there was an almost unanimous vote in favor of the union. In Europe there is now, as the result of this, one sovereign less. The tendency of national union and consolidation in these times is irresistible. The absorption of Rome by Italy is a feature and result of this tendency of States toward political consolidation.

The territory which thus passes under the dominion of Italy contains a population of about seven hundred thousand persons. Prior to 1859 the papal territory was much more extensive. But the war of that year which made Italy a kingdom, took away from the Pope more than two-thirds of his dominions. The remainder is now wrested from him, and one of the oldest monarchies of Europe ceases to exist. It is over eleven hundred years since its temporal power began, and Pius IX, is the one hundred and sixty-fifth of his line. The temporal sovereignty of the Popes began with Stephen III in the year 752, it promises to end forever with Pius IX. It is worthy of remark that it is to France that both the origin and the downfall of the temporal sovereignty of the holy see are due. Pepin, King of the Franks rescued Rome from the Lombards and bestowed it as a royal inheritance upon the head of the Church, and the power thus established continued till the French troops who had been placed at Rome to defend the Pope were withdrawn a few weeks ago, leaving the way open for the absorption of the papal territory by Italy, and the extinction of a sovereignty of more than eleven centuries duration

The Walla Walla Union says that "the [illegible] of the consistency of the Oregon Democracy is the most apparent when we behold their Legislators exacting a pledge from Mr. Kelly to do the very thing that their constituents pledged them not to do. In order to make this picture of regenerated Democracy complete, it is only necessary to make them believe that in order to build this road, that Senator Kelly is to champion it is necessary to have Chinese labor this done, and we will see the Democracy pledging their Senator to favor Chinese immigration societies. This would only be the other half that it would take to make the metamorphose complete"

Mr Stout has introduced a bill in the Senate which is worthy of commendation and we hasten to note the fact. This is a bill to equalize taxes among the several counties in the State. Let this bill be passed and the "relief bills" whereby some of the counties are trying to get rid of paying their just proportion of taxes be discontinued. There is opportunity here to do a little something for the State, but we fear the present Legislature will never do so sensible a thing as to pass Mr Stout's bill

Mr Cochran is the only Democrat in the Senate who had sense and candor enough to denounce the bill to tax unnaturalized foreigners and to declare its utter futility. Some of the rest had sense enough but they lacked candor. For instance nobody knows better than Messrs Stout and Fay that such a law will be unconstitutional, inoperative and void but they think they can gull the Democracy and make votes by harping on it

A California paper speaking of the action of the Oregon Legislature toward General Sherman, says that body had a special reason for not treating Sherman with civility and that special reason was founded solely on the fact that Sherman had rendered the country great services in fighting secession. Of course there could be no other reason

The action of Sheriff White in keeping the Brotherton brothers in the county jail instead of sending them to San Quentin, has created a great deal of comment to day. It is alleged that they have been allowed to receive the visits of women of doubtful character in jail since sentenced to State Prison, and been treated unlike convicted forgers. Unless some satisfactory explanation is given Judge Lake will probably make an example in this case

An excursion for San Diego via San Francisco starts from Chicago October 13 and will arrive here about the 18th or 19th. Speculation in town lots at the terminus of the Southern Pacific railroad is on foot in connection with this excursion

CURRENT NOTES

The population of the Southern District of Illinois is 1 35d 7[illegible] against 932 263 in 1860. Gain 431 4[illegible]3

Punch has the following —A Capital Answer. Self made man examining a school, of which he is a visitor—"Now, boy, what's the capital of Olland?" Boy—"An 'H,' sir"

A healthy old Texan says that, "from first to last he has received from discharges of guns and pistols into his body, 175 shot, had both legs, collar bone and seven ribs broken and his skull cracked. is the father of twenty children raised this year with his own hands 1 100 head of fine cabbage 4 000 large beets besides other crops and can now run a pretty good quarter race

The Tribune's Washington special says returns in the War Department have lately been examined with reference to the transportation account of the late war shows that the portion of the service of the Illinois Central Railroad which was rendered free under a provision of the bill granting lands for its construction, has amounted to a sum equal to $20 per acre to the Government for the land it gave

Andy Johnson in his late speech to the people of Gallatin, Tennessee admonished them that the old Southern Democracy doctrine of State sovereignty was only secession and revolution in disguise and that it was too late in the day to attempt the revival of that exploded fallacy, that the Southern Democracy ought to unite with the national Democracy on a platform free from the suspicion of secession

The total vote for Governor of Maine in 1869 was For Chamberlain (Rep) 51 [illegible]78. Opposition (Democrat 39 854. Prohibition, 4 747. Labor Union, 891) 45 494. Republican majority 6 084. The vote the present year was Perham (Rep) 44 051. Roberts (Dem) 40 176. Republican majority 3 875 showing a gain in one year of 2,701. Immediately after the election the Democrats claimed as usual a great "gain"

It begins to be whispered here that Col Kelly will not return to Portland this fall or winter but go direct from Salem to the East. It is surmised that he is ashamed to come, after having given that humiliating pledge. There is certainly reason for thinking this probable

THE TERRITORIES

Dr Day informs the Walla Walla Union that he has within the past two months, bought over $2[illegible] worth of gold dust and that he has assayed for other parties as much more. The return of gold dust from the mines is better thus far this fall than it was last fall

From the Boise Statesman: There is no vacant ground between the town and foothills. It has all been taken up and fenced and will be cultivated next season. The water ditch has placed a value upon all land through which it runs and is the occasion of the net work of fences now seen where there was none last season

A Walla Walla paper says. A Frenchman just down from the California ranch near Spokane says that the Indians are becoming very saucy and troublesome in that neighborhood so much so that he was afraid to stay on his farm with his family. He, and others who are well acquainted with the Indian character fear trouble with the Spokanes soon. The Indians in that neighborhood as well as near the Cœur d Alene Mission have for some time shown signs of hostility towards the whites

Persons traveling through Montana, who are unacquainted with the customs of the mountain tribes, have been at a loss to account for the large number of red pine trees which have been stripped of their bark from their roots up several feet. A local paper explains that the inner bark is an ingredient of the Indians in making bread. They pound it to a pulp, and then work it up with a species of moss grasshoppers and berries. It is manufactured in the summer and fall and laid by for winter consumption. Since the influx of whites and the cultivation of grain, potatoes, etc, the Indians have generally discarded pine bark bread but in former years it was their "staff of life"

The Transcript gives the following particulars of a thrilling adventure which occurred in Lewis county on the 24th of September. As Mr Andrew Urquhart, of Lewis county was going out from dinner, his attention was called by three cougars about thirty yards distant, coming toward him on a slow trot and growling in a fierce manner. Mr Urquhart being entirely unarmed halloed at them but finding that they did not slacken their pace, turned and made for the house, whereupon all three of the cougars made chase at the top of their speed. Mr Urquhart's dog met them near the house when the foremost cougar was within a few feet of him in hot pursuit. This disconcerted the cougars so that he was able to escape into the house barely eluding them as he passed in, as they had resumed the chase immediately. Arming himself with gun, revolver and knife he killed all three in four shots. As they were very lean and lank he opened them and to his horror found a piece of a human skull with the hair on it, no doubt secured from some Indian grave, as no one is known to have been missing. He likewise found in one of them a strip of strong cloth two inches wide and ten inches long. We are indebted to Mr Horace Howe for this information, who obtained it direct from Mr Urquhart himself. This is sixteen of these animals killed by him in this vicinity. This last adventure is something extraordinary, as nothing of the kind has ever occurred like it before

"A SLIGHT COLD" COUGHS —Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough or "slight cold" in its first stage. that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy if neglected often attacks the lungs. [illegible] MY NAME."—In the first [illegible] the reader that we have [illegible] before the public the name of [illegible] fall into hands of the police. [illegible] the liquor traffic is licensed, so [illegible] pay for their indulgences. [illegible] "dairy" business anyhow, [illegible] not propose to speak at this [illegible], we are requested to omit [illegible] the police reports of this city. [illegible] of young men from city [illegible] are brought before that tribunal [illegible] caused by over-indulgence [illegible] both combined. Frequently [illegible] connected, and the publica- [illegible] in the police reports would [illegible] a large circle of relatives and [illegible] instances these young men [illegible] brought up by fond parents, [illegible] by many of the restraining in- [illegible] and the refinements of life; [illegible] to the reporter's generosity are [illegible] we are beginning to feel that [illegible] comply with such request we are [illegible] injury to the great interests of [illegible] perhaps contribute to increase the [illegible]. To expose the misdeeds of the [illegible] public peace is one of the most [illegible] to restrain them, and to shield [illegible] their depredations. Publicity has [illegible] some cases than the fear of any kind [illegible] more power than the law itself [illegible] the press to remove this restraining [illegible] the floodgates wide upon society? [illegible] a young man from the country [illegible] about to be married; and he would [illegible] friends at home know what had hap- [illegible] any amount of money. Ask yourselves [illegible] to shield your sons from the [illegible] which, it appears from many a sad [illegible] made, they are exposed in this other- [illegible]

[illegible] WITH CHINA.—When the first ves- [illegible] Chinese Mail Steamer Line left San [illegible] for Hong Kong, on the 1st day of Janu- [illegible] was thought she could make the [illegible] two months, with the necessary in- [illegible] discharging, taking in freight, getting [illegible]. We believe that the steamers of [illegible] not done so well. May we assign as [illegible] for this, the fact that San Francisco is [illegible] with the direct route to China, and [illegible] steamer which goes and comes loses [illegible] five days sailing by coming up to [illegible] of the Columbia river before making [illegible] destination—and on the return voyage [illegible] the same course? This must at least [illegible] to do with it, as the sailing ves- [illegible] have been plying in the Oregon and [illegible] have averaged but thirty-two to thirty [illegible] the trip between ports. This, then, [illegible] the subject exactly home, and we begin to [illegible] our location places us just where [illegible] is able to successfully compete with [illegible] for the China trade, and that all the [illegible] will be tributary to Oregon, while [illegible] other marts are gradually opening on the [illegible] coast, as well as the islands of the Pa- [illegible]. We guess it is not necessary that the pres- [illegible] should remove the commercial [illegible] this year.

[illegible] COUNTY FAIR.—Scoggins' "Jack [illegible] race of half a mile, best two in [illegible] yesterday won it over J. REAL ESTATE SALES.

Nathan Coffman to P. J. Murphy; southwest quarter of block 1, warranty deed, consideration, $200.

F. K. Arnold and wife to A. E. Johnson, north half of block 305, in George E. Aiken's Addition to East Portland, warranty deed, consideration, $625.

ASTORIA ITEMS.—We have the following under date of Astoria, Oct. 3:

The weather has been very stormy, and a great deal of rain has fallen the last two days.

The barkentine Jane A. Falkenburg arrived here from Westport loaded and bound for the Sandwich Islands.

General Holman goes East on the next steamer on account of ill health. The work will continue under the supervision of his son.

There seems to be some prospect of another wharf being built here soon.

Col. Taylor, an old citizen of Oregon, and his wife will start for the East on a visit to Mr. Taylor's old home on the next steamer.

The officers and soldiers at Cape Disappointment are expecting to be removed upon the arrival of the steamer Newbern. Their presence among us will be very much missed, and we wish them well wherever they go.

The bark Helen W. Almy is loaded for China, and is awaiting a chance to go to sea.

RUNAWAY LAWS—DEAD.—The horse injured by a farmer's team which "cut such a dash" in this city on Saturday last is dead. This animal was the property of Mr. J. Butlers, and Mr. Butlers has paid $40 for repairs to his wagon, which was smashed by the same runaway team. In all his expenses will amount to $125. He has to stand it, though, as the farmer who owned the runaway team has not appeared to even apologize for his stupidity or carelessness in this matter. A stringent law, providing for the arrest and punishment of men owning teams that run away on the streets of the city, ought to be passed by the Council. If Mr. Butlers had not moved his teams on the street at the time he did, to clear the road for the runaways, the latter would have gone plum into Meussdorffer's great show window at the hat store, in which case we predict there would have been a bill of costs to settle.

CEREMONY OF RECEPTION.—The impressive ceremonies of investiture in the Roman Catholic Church was witnessed in this city at the Convent Chapel yesterday by an audience which filled the chapel to overflowing. The fair novice who underwent this ceremony was Miss Hannah Young, sister-in-law of Mr. John Brady, of this city. Miss Young is a native of Ireland, but came to the United States in her early youth. The ceremonies were conducted by the very Rev. Father J. F. Fierens, who delivered an eloquent sermon at the close of the ceremony. Miss Young will be known hereafter as "Sister Mary Joseph, of the Holy Catholic Church." Sister Mary will, after a short further preparation, take upon herself the obligations of the Holy Sisterhood.

PROTEST.—A petition, of which the following is a copy, was being generally circulated yesterday, and seemed to receive the signatures of many leading citizens: "We, the undersigned, citizens and taxpayers of the city of Portland, do hereby most earnestly protest against the passage of the bill now pending in the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon, to amend the Charter of the City of Portland, providing for the appointment of a Board of Police Commissioners by the Governor of the State, and in the matter of Police Regulations. We do most emphatically assert our ability to govern ourselves, and claim the privilege of choosing our local officers."

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mrs. Sophia Hornung, an old lady aged 82 years, mother of Phillip Hornung of this city, and Mrs. Geo. J. M. Kallich, died suddenly yesterday while sitting in her chair at the residence of Mr. Kallich, on the corner of Taylor and First streets in this city. Mrs. Hornung and her daughter came on the last steamer on a visit from Indiana to her son and daughter here, and this sad event sends a chill to the hearts of the family by whom she was surrounded, apparently in good health up to the hour of her death. The funeral will take place at the residence of Mr. Kallich at 2 o'clock P. M. to day.

THE NEST EGG.—The little tug Eagle, which "flys" about the docks here, is solid copper-bottomed. She was hatched in New York in 1852, and was brought around "the Horn," (not in a horn), on the deck of a clipper bark. Two others came in the same nest with the Eagle, but what became of them we know not. This little boat, however, has been the King of Crafts on the Wallamet. She has earned more coin than she could carry to day—and is good for another decade. Capt. Fisher is now command.

COUNTRY TEAMS.—There has never been a season before, in Oregon, when there were more country teams visiting Portland with produce, and hauling goods, than this year. Yesterday the lower portions of Front street were literally jam full of wagons, most of the day. Front street above Main, and First street, in the vicinity of Yamhill and Madison streets, is also a great headquarters or rendezvous for freighters.

OREGON SUGAR REFINERY.—Matters pertaining to the erection of the first establishment in Oregon for refining coarser grades of sugar are rapidly assuming tangible form. Mr. A. S. Gross will leave this week overland, going by way of San Francisco and Chicago to New York, accredited with power to procure drafts for the machinery, expenses of the same, etc., etc. This looks like business. God speed the enterprise.

A PAUPER.—The appearance of a street beggar in Portland at almost any other time than this would not be accounted much of an item in the history of the place. Just now, however, he is looked upon with sinister eye. A poor old fellow on the streets yesterday, going from house to house in search of alms, was met by the bluff question, "Whose father are you?" from a suspicious property owner.

THEATRICAL.—The attendance at the wigwam in Salem to witness the performances by the Oro Fino Theatrical Troupe, on Monday evening, we are informed, was in excess in point of numbers of any audience at the Theatre in this city. The Bird Troupe were performing at the Opera House to meagre audiences. The Oro Fino Company reproduced "Fernando," and the "Lady of Lyons" extravaganza.

RELEASED.—The schooner Louisa Simpson has been released on bonds secured by Messrs. Phil. Wasserman and M. Koshland, and will soon load and sail for San Francisco.

STREET PLANK.—The Eagle had in tow from Oswego, yesterday, a barge loaded with sidewalk plank from the Tualatin Company's mills.

SOCIABLE.—For the benefit of the Young Mens' Christian Association, at the Baptist Church basement this evening.

The Summer is past and Autumn is here,
The finest season throughout the whole year,
But the days grow cool, and all must prepare
For warmer Clothing in Winter to wear.
Well, KOHN & FISHEL, of Clothing renown,
Have the best supply ever brought to town.
They have all sorts of coats and pants that will match,
That will last a whole year and not need a patch;

On motion of Mr. Trevitt the Senate went into Committee of the Whole on the business referred to that Committee.

The committee took up S. B. 21, to grant aid to the construction of a wagon road through Jackson, Grant and Baker counties. The committee agreed to an appropriation of $20,000, and to make J. N. T. Miller, Thos. F. Beall and Dennis Crowley, Commissioners to superintend the construction and to amend so as to draw the appropriation exclusively from the fund arising from the five per cent. of sales of public lands, and to amend in various other unimportant particulars.

HOUSE—Morning Session.

SALEM, Tuesday, Oct. 4, 1870.

The House was called to order at 9 o'clock A. M. by the Speaker, Messrs. Lockhart, Olney and Starkweather being absent.

The journal was read and approved. The usual prayer was omitted.

WATER RIGHT.

The Speaker announced the order of business, bills, reports and other business laying on the table as first in order.

Mr. McCoy—I move that the House resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole upon House bill No. 6, an Act relating to water rights and the right of way to construct canals, flumes and ditches.

The Speaker—We have not yet got through with the regular order.

Mr. McCoy's motion prevailed.

Mr. Whiteaker was called to the Chair, and the committee proceeded to consider House bill No. 6.

The committee amended the bill and reported it back to the House, asking to be discharged from the further consideration of the bill.

The request was granted, and the bill was referred to a special committee of five consisting of Messrs. McLain, McCoy, Hunter, Drain and Waldron.

PUBLIC LANDS.

A message from the Governor was read, reporting in reply to a resolution of inquiry adopted by the House, that all of the 500,000 acres of lands granted by Congress for internal improvements have been selected for the State; that 431,576 42-100 acres have been approved by the Secretary of the Interior, that 10,510 52-100 acres have been sold for $15,002 80, of which $5,000 72 have been paid to the State, and the remainder secured by mortgage as required by law, and that warrants for $14,302 02 have been drawn against the fund under the Act passed by the last Legislature for draining lands along the Grand Ronde river.

The message was ordered printed.

A message from the Senate announced the passage of a memorial asking Congress to renew the grant of swamp, marsh and tide lands, which lapsed two years after the admission of the State into the Union. The memorial also states that about 30,000 acres of swamp lands have been erroneously selected as part of the 500,000 acres, and asks that other lands be allowed in lieu of such lands in case the old grant of swamp and tide lands should be revived.

Mr. Starkweather stated that no lands which have been designated on the U. S. land plats as swamp or overflowed lands have been located for the State. In order to consider the matter maturely, he moved that the memorial be printed.

The motion prevailed, and on motion, the memorial was referred to a special committee, consisting of Messrs. Hare, Helm, Dorris, Calloway and Porter.

The message also announced the passage of S. B. 7, an Act to tax and regulate the employment of foreigners who have not become citizens of the United States. The bill was read the first time.

Also, S. B. 15, an Act to amend the General Laws in relation to assessments. The bill exempts institutions from taxation. It was read the first time.

COOS BAY WAGON ROAD COMPANY.

Mr. Helm, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a substitute for H. B. 2, a bill to donate certain lands to the Coos Bay Wagon Road Company. The substitute is the original bill.

Mr. Whalley, from the same committee, presented the following minority report:

Mr. Speaker, the minority of the Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred H. B. 2, being unable to assent to the conclusions arrived at by the majority of said committee, respectfully beg leave to offer the following minority report.

The minority regards the Act of Congress entitled an Act granting lands to the State of Oregon to aid in the construction of a military wagon road from the navigable waters of Coos Bay to Roseburg, in said State, to be a grant in praesenti of the lands in said Act mentioned, but subject to a condition of defeasance. The State by it takes a qualified fee in the lands mentioned, since if the road be not completed within five years the unsold lands shall revert to the United States.

2d. The lands are granted to the State, not to any company, for a particular and declared purpose, namely to aid in the construction of a military wagon road from Coos Bay to Roseburg, and by the act certain conditions and limitations are imposed upon the State relative to the manner in which such State shall sell and dispose of the lands granted to it, from which consideration the minority conclude that on accepting the grant the State becomes a trustee to use, dispose of and sell the granted lands, and that the State being such trustee has no power to make the Coos Bay Wagon Road Company nor any person or company a trustee to carry out the provisions of said act of Congress, it being a familiar maxim in the law that delegatus non potest delegare, but it is contended by the minority that by House bill No. 2 the State would assume to controvert the above established principle.

3d. The framers of House bill No. 2 will not deny that they intend by it that the State of Oregon shall dispose of its rights to the granted lands to the Coos Bay Wagon Road Company, and that the last named company shall thereupon become vested with the rights and title which the State had. If so the State must have disposed of the granted lands at a time which by the act of Congress it is expressly prohibited from doing.

4th. The act of Congress inhibits the sale of any greater quantity of the granted lands at any one time than thirty sections and all sales of land are to be made from time to time as the work progresses. House bill No. 2, however, proposes to disregard this express inhibition and to sell the lands which the State takes under the grant to the Coos Bay Wagon Road Company, although such lands may amount to 150 sections.

5th. The Coos Bay Wagon Road Company is a person in law, being a corporation, and by the second provision of section 1 of the act of Congress no person can take more than one quarter section of land; but House bill No. 2 proposes to sell to such corporation, in consideration that it shall construct and complete the road, the whole of the lands granted by the act of Congress to the State, thereby clearly, in the opinion of the minority, violating the letter and spirit of the law.

There are other considerations which a desire to be brief precludes us from urging at present, but which satisfy us that House Bill No. 2 is not in accordance with the act of Congress, which it professes to follow. In conclusion, the minority of the Judiciary Committee would suggest that the law should be so framed as to create a Board of Commissioners for the purpose of selling the grant lands from time to time as the road progresses, that [illegible] paid into the State Treasury, subject to the [illegible] Board of Commissioners [illegible] said road. The suggestion [illegible] is a mere outline of the proposed law, but by adopting it, in the opinion of the minority, the [illegible] of the act of Congress will be carried out, [illegible] the proposed road insured, the [illegible] of settlers protected, [illegible] obstacles thrown in the way of any who might attempt to prevent the [illegible] scheme [illegible]. The minority, therefore, [illegible] that House Bill No. 2 be not engrossed, but referred to a special committee of three with instructions to report a substitute in accordance with the suggestions herein contained.

Mr. Whalley, by leave, read the preceding report, remarking that [illegible] the Clerk, who is not familiar with his writing.

Mr. Amis—I would like to ask the gentleman who has undertaken to read his own report, to explain what the Greek or Latin or Hebrew which it contains, means.

Mr. Whalley—I will do so with pleasure, as I [illegible] the gentleman from Linn, Mr. Amis, would [illegible] from [illegible]. Mr. [illegible] requested it. The report [illegible] which [illegible] no one else. The gentleman can find the maxim in a little work entitled "[illegible] Legal Maxims."

Mr. Dorris moved the adoption of the minority report.

Mr. Whalley opposed the motion. He desired the bill referred to a special committee, so that it might be more fully considered. He said the titles which the company should get under the bill as reported would be worthless, mere waste paper. The company would perhaps lose nothing, but the purchasers would.

Mr. Helm regarded the question of the propriety of conferring such grants already settled by precedent and had no doubt the titles granted by the company would be perfectly good, as the Secretary of the Interior had already decided them good in other and similar cases. He said the majority had simply reported back the original bill in place of the amended one, which had been referred to them. The majority report had been dissented from by [illegible] member of the Committee.

Mr. [illegible] opposed the motion. He was in favor of the minority report. He was confident that if the Wagon Road Company [illegible] getting the sixty sections which they [illegible], they will never build [illegible] road. [illegible] agent to oppose the bill. He denied being an agent for any such purpose, and alleged that he was acting simply in accordance with his views of duty to the people interested. He admitted that the road is needed and he wished to see the lands granted so managed as to secure the building of the road.

Mr. Dorris said the committee had agreed unanimously upon everything except that of selling the lands. He argued that the State having but a qualified fee in the land, could not pass a fee simple title to purchasers, as contemplated by the minority report. He referred to a previous remark made by Mr. Lockhart, that Mr. Rose had told him that if the [illegible] sections now due the company could be secured, no more of the road will be built; and said it had been denied by Mr. Rose.

Mr. Lockhart said he had been erroneously reported to have said that Mr. Rose told him this. He had said that Mr. Guernsey had informed him that Mr. Rose had made such a remark.

Mr. Hare called attention to the fact that the law of Congress making the donation to the Coos Bay Wagon Road Company, differs from all other similar acts in one important particular. It provides that not more than [illegible] shall be sold to any one person. This he claimed would preclude the State from giving the company any greater amount.

Mr. Caldwell moved the previous question, which was ordered by the House.

The House refused to refer—18 ayes to 21 noes.

The majority report was then adopted—2[illegible] ayes to 17 noes.

At 12 M. the House adjourned.

Afternoon Session.

The House was called to order at 1½ o'clock by the Speaker.

BILLS.

H. B. 27—An Act for the relief of Artemus Dodge of Linn county, was read and ordered engrossed.

Mr. O'Regan from the special committee on H. B. [illegible] An Act to regulate fees of witnesses before grand juries, reported it back favorably.

Mr. Caldwell, from the Committee on Claims, reported favorably upon H. B. 21—An Act for the relief of B. F. Bonham.

Mr. Hare introduced a Bill to amend the General Law relative to incorporations. Under suspension of the rules the bill was read the first time by title and ordered printed.

Mr. Dunbar introduced a Bill to regulate the practice of medicine.

PUBLIC LANDS.

The hour having arrived for the consideration of the special order, the clerk read the following:

WHEREAS, a doubt has arisen in the mind of some as to whether Congress did or did not confirm to the State of Oregon for Common School purposes, the grant of 500,000 acres of land named in an act entitled, an act to appropriate the sales of public lands and to grant pre-emption rights, approved Sept. 4, 1841, approved by the act of Congress admitting the State of Oregon into the Union, approved Feb. 14th, 1859, and, whereas, there are now several bills pending before the Legislature of Oregon seeking to divert the proceeds of the sales of said lands from the purpose named in Sec. 2 of Article 8 of our State Constitution, therefore be it

Resolved by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon, That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our Representative in Congress be requested to procure the passage of a law confirming said grant to the State for common school purposes.

Mr. Starkweather spoke at some length in favor of the resolution. He urged that no provision of the State Constitution had met with more general approval by the people than the one which dedicates the 500,000 acres grant to common school purposes. The lands had been selected for the State by Governors Whiteaker and Gibbs with the understanding that they were intended for school purposes, and the selections had been approved by the Commissioner of the General Land Office as school lands. They had been habitually regarded as such from the beginning of the State government down to the last session of the Legislature. The question was then first raised as to whether the lands might not be used for internal improvements, as to whether the original law had been changed by the Act admitting the State into the Union with the provision referred to in it. The State of Iowa was admitted under similar circumstances, with the same provision in her Constitution, and her lands have been held sacredly for the benefit of her common schools. He supposed the decision of the House as to the resolution before it would turn upon the relative merits of the two great interests which are brought into antagonism by the issue—the land must be used either for internal improvements or for the common school fund. Both these interests are great ones and should be carefully weighed. The lands heretofore sold have brought $2 50 per acre. At the same rate the 500,000 acres would bring $1,250,000. But the grant of select lands are more valuable than the 16th and 36th sections, many of which were occupied when the surveys were made, so that other lands had to be located in lieu of them. He put down the value of the lands at $1,500,000. The interest on this sum at 10 per cent per annum, would be $150,000 per annum. All of this and much more will be needed to support a good system of public schools, and if it is voted away for internal improvements the people will have to pay a sufficient tax to make it up. In other words, the question presents itself in the shape of an inquiry as to whether the Legislature will impose a perpetual tax of $150,000 upon the people which may now be averted. As to devoting the funds to internal improvements he argued that there was no way in which the fund could be expended so as to benefit the citizens of the State equally. It had been urged upon the outside by the friends of the bill to appropriate $725,000 of this fund to the P. T. Company to aid in the construction of locks at Oregon City; that the company would secure more than the legal rates of interest in the State's proportion of the tolls. If this be the case why does the company want the fund. Their credit is good. Why do they not go to the bank or to capitalists and get the money, so as to save this high interest. He concluded by urging the higher claims which the future good of the educational interests of the State have upon members of the Legislature over the interests which might be benefitted by expending the fund for internal improvements.

Mr. Hare disclaimed any partisan feeling upon the subject. He read section 2 of article 8 of the State Constitution dedicating the 500,000 acres of land and the 5 per centum arising from sales of land to common school purposes, subject to the approval of Congress. The Constitution with this provision in it came before Congress in the nature of a petition for admission into the Union. As will be seen by the act for the admission of the State into the Union Congress admitted the State with all its propositions unimpaired except the one in relation to the 5 per centum of the sales. By its silence, Mr. Hare argued, Congress had given its assent to the transfer of the 500,000 acres just as it had given its assent to other provisions of the Constitution. He cited the case of Iowa, and argued the action of Congress in declaring that by its silence in regard to a similar provision in the Constitution of that State it had signified its assent to the transfer of the fund to the common school fund of Iowa had decided the question for Oregon and all other States. In California a like clause was inserted in the State Constitution. Congress in admitting the State was silent, and it is universally conceded that the fund is transferred from the internal improvement fund to the benefit of common schools, hence he claimed that the question is already settled, yet many men of influence hold a different opinion. He was willing to vote for the resolution, so that Congress might pass a declaratory act and thus make assurance doubly sure.

Mr. Helm thought that Congress could no more give its assent to the transfer of the fund by its silence than it could bind the State by its silence. He gave the history of the admission of the State and the history of the discussion on the subject of the transfer of the fund. He referred to the objection made by Mr. Alexander H. Stephens to the confirmation of the provision in the Constitution that it could not be acceded to by the Southern members of Congress upon whom the State depended for admission.

The debate was continued at great length by Messrs. Dorris, Starkweather, Davenport and O'Regan in favor, and Messrs. Hayden, Amis and Lockhart in opposition to it.

Mr. Amis moved the previous question, which was ordered by the House, and the resolution was adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Messrs. Apperson, Brown, Burnett, Caldwell, Carson, Cargile, Dorris, Dunbar, Davenport, Earhart, Hutchinson, Harrison, Holman, Hare, Hussey, Loughlin, McLain, Mills, Olney, O'Regan, Porter, Paquet, Quimby, Starkweather, Wells and Whalley—2[illegible].

Noes—Messrs. Alexander, Amis, Clark, Comegys, Calhoun, Deshiel, Elkins, Fulton, Grant, Helm, Hunter, Lockhart, McCoy, Munkers, [illegible], Ryder, Savage, Thompson, Whiteaker, Walton and Mr. Speaker—21.

Mr. Hare introduced a bill to establish a [illegible] at the mouth of the Columbia river. It was ordered printed.

Mr. Calloway introduced a bill relating to [illegible] boats, which was ordered printed.

At 5 o'clock P. M. the House adjourned.

Mark Twain's New Map

Mark Twain gives in the Buffalo Express a burlesque upon the war maps just now so common. As a triumph of art this map of the Buffalo humorist is unapproachable. It is entitled the "Fortifications of Paris," but nobody would ever suspect that it had any relation to the French capital if not told of the fact. It exhibits the positions of Saint Louis, Vincennes, Verdun, Podunk, the Erie Canal, High Bridge, Omaha and Jersey City. A peculiarity of the map is that the river Rhine runs directly into Paris, and that Jersey City lies in an elbow of the Seine, almost directly west of Vincennes. Prominence is given to a farm house and fence in the foreground of the map. The map is accompanied by a description and certain official communications, which we append:

TO THE READER.

The above map explains itself.

The idea of this map is not original with me, but is borrowed from the Tribune and the other great metropolitan journals.

I claim no other merit for this production (if I may so call it), than that it is accurate. The main blemish of the city paper maps, of which it is an imitation, is, that in them more attention seems paid to artistic picturesqueness than geographical reliability.

Inasmuch as this is the first time that I ever tried to draft and engrave a map, or anything in the line of art at all, the commendations the work has received and the admiration it has excited among the people, have been very grateful to my feelings. And it is touching to reflect that by far the most enthusiastic of these praises have come from people who know nothing at all about art.

By an unimportant oversight I have engraved the map so that it reads wrong end first, except to left handed people. I forgot that in order to make it right in print it should be drawn and engraved up-side down. However, let the student who desires to contemplate the map stand on his head or hold it before her looking glass. That will bring it right.

The reader will comprehend at a glance that that piece of river with the "High Bridge" over it got left out to one side by reason of a slip of the engraving tool, which rendered it necessary to change the entire course of the River Rhine or else spoil the map. After having spent two days in digging and gouging at the map, I would have changed the course of the Atlantic ocean before I would have lost so much work.

I never had so much trouble with anything in my life as I did with this map. I had heaps of little fortifications scattered all around Paris, at first, but every now and then my instruments would slip and fetch away whole miles of batteries and leave the vicinity as clean as if the Prussians had been there.

The reader will find it well to frame this map for future reference, so that it may aid in extending popular intelligence and dispelling the wide-spread ignorance of the day.

Half Alive.

It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no specific disease; they suffer no positive pain, but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure to their more robust and energetic fellow beings.

In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food, every organ is starved, every function interrupted.

Now, what does common sense suggest under the circumstances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two, to sink afterward into a more pitiable condition than ever, as it assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to), but radically and permanently.

How is this desirable object to be accomplished? The answer to this question, founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century, is easily given. Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time in administering temporary remedies, but wake the system up by [illegible] the fountain head of physical strength and [illegible], the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support.

By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence. Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves. Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthful blood, fit to be the material of flesh and muscle, bone and nerve, and brain, flows through the channels of circulation instead of the watery [illegible] with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished.

LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA.

THE INDUSTRIAL [illegible] THE STATE FAIR, AND OTHER MATTERS.

[illegible], Cal., Sept. 27, 1870.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I write thinking an item from this section would not be uninteresting.

This village is situated twenty-two miles east of Sacramento, among the foot hills of the Sierra Nevada mountains. It is to me one of the most beautiful places I have seen in this State. It was quite a lively place when the surrounding hills were yielding their gold, but that life died, and as it is concerted, it awoke up to a new life based on agriculture, in which it is yet an infant.

California at present desires immigration. But the best lands in the State are held either by pre-emptors, Spaniards or land grabbers, and these lands cannot be bought for less than two or three prices. There remains the foot hills and some very good land in the southern part of the State.

Now I believe these foot hills will in time sustain a dense population, but owing to defects in the soil and climate that time is distant and will require more labor to bring it about than at points further north. Eastern Oregon will yet rival this section in progress. The sojourner here is first impressed with the fact that every rancher will sell, and many will take half and some one-fourth the cost of their improvements. In a small village not far hence, a small house in very good condition, that cost about $1,000, sold for $75, and that was all it was worth, owing to the state of the country. A farmer having a squatter's right to 60 acres, all under good fence, 20 acres in cultivation, a house costing near $300 and a small vineyard and orchard that would supply any family, offered all for $300. Another, having a patent for near 900 acres all under fence, several dwelling houses and barns, all having cost him $16,000, offered it for $4,000. So nearly every one responds when asked, what will you take for your farm? They say they desire to move to the lowlands, and many to Oregon and Washington.

It is not an easy task to cultivate the soil here, because there is so little of it. The granite bed-rock—sometimes slate—comes so near the surface that the soil cannot hold sufficient moisture. Then between the soil and bed-rock it is gravel, so the water that is bestowed on it soon runs away. Even if the summer showers fell often yet irrigation would be necessary. Hay can be made of wheat or oats early in the spring and summer without irrigating; also some vineyards, after they have become six or eight years old, will prosper without irrigating. To supply water for this purpose and for the little mining that still goes on, ditches run in almost every direction, and reservoirs are so numerous that they become a nuisance by creating fevers. During the summer months you can hear the chattering of teeth from chills on nearly every hand, and if you were here you could feel the aching bones and burning fevers.

The tillers of the soil turn their attention to fruit growing almost entirely, because it is the only profitable crop they can raise in this climate with this soil. Yet a project is being tried that promises well to vary the products of this section; that of tea growing. As far as tried the tea plant flourishes, but further time is necessary to ascertain whether it will be profitable.

Now, you will will perceive, a poor man cannot well come here, take up raw land and improve it, unless he can live a few years without an income. He must wait till his fig trees bear, till his peaches and grapes mature. How unlike Oregon, where I have seen men take up raw land, sow wheat on it without plowing (harrowing) and raise a good crop. But when one gets a good orchard and vineyard producing, they will prosper here.

But before my letter gets too long, I must say a word about the State Fair, for if the shadow is the true image of the substance, then you can judge of the farmers by the fair. But I give you due warning that to do so in this case would not be justice to the California farmers.

It is called the "Agricultural State Fair." Now the word "agricultural" written just where it is, would lead one to believe the farmers got it up, and sanctioned it by bringing the best products of their farms to exhibit and show what they can do, and at the same time exchange ideas for mutual improvement. But to discard the word and attend the Fair one would think, either that it was gotten up by a jockey club to make money by admission fees, and by exchange on horse racing, or that most of the farmers of California were fast men and spent most of their time raising fast horses, which latter is not the case.

I confess I was not favorably impressed with the Fair. I naturally contrasted it with the many I have attended in Oregon, and in my humble estimation it fell far below these in the essentials of an Agricultural Fair. Perhaps I cannot appreciate a good thing; say, fancy drinks, pool auctioneering, hurrahing for the winning horse, and betting on the losing horse, perhaps; but I will just here state my objections if I get tarred for it.

I first objected to two Fairs, one at the grounds and the other up town. I think that if the powers that control desired to build up a fair for the benefit of the farmers of this State, they would not have divided the interest for the sale of two admission fees.

The next objection is, if you paid your fifty cents admission, you could not go out that day without having to pay another fifty cents to get in again—provided you desired to go back.

I objected to the $10,000 premium list that was intended and succeeded in bringing out the best race horse in the State. The rock bottomed farmer does not appreciate so much racing, and it simply amused the other class, who add not much real wealth to any country. I would advise temperance in this respect.

I also objected to a ring controlling the races, so they could tell beforehand the winning horse, and thus make a collection from those poor fellows who have no better sense than to bet on a jockey race.

I also objected to the lack of shade for men. In this hot country men need shade at such places. The Society has spent thousands to build comfortable quarters for horses. They also built a shade for the ladies simply to use it as a clap-trap to derive another four bits from the men who have cash and courage.

And lastly I objected to their exhibiting the products of other States and countries as if they were their own. This is not stealing, it is not plagiarism—but in this State it is a sort of diplomatic misappropriation.

At the grounds there were about two hundred horses, some very fine and some very small; about forty head of cattle, old and young; I never saw much better looking animals anywhere; three or four jacks; about one hundred sheep of all grades; eight or ten hogs—that large hog exhibited a few years ago at the Oregon State Fair could have swallowed them as Aaron's rod did those of the magicians; about one dozen chickens and one deer.

The up-town fair was held in quite a large pavilion, and merited much praise, though unalloyed. All the space was taken, but not to exhibit the products of the State altogether. The merchants here have have an eye to business, and some of them bring out of their stores largely as an advertisement. The carpet men are there, not with specimens, but they set up quite a little carpet store; the furniture man, the wine man, the picture man, the hardware man—all had their places there exhibiting their foreign goods. Wagons built in the southern part of Indiana occupied the space that should have been filled by wagons built in this State. A big thing or nothing is their motto; so when they do bring out their own productions they bring out all they have—it makes a great show. The coopers and broom makers had nearly a carload of their wares.

If we take a peep at the fruit department we will find that the same enterprising spirit prevails, long tables groaning under their weighty loads; no use to mention the varieties, for nearly all were represented abundantly. A more beautiful sight could not be presented. If the forbidden fruit was so temping I don't blame Eve much for plucking it. The vegetable department was slim and the few specimens not to be boasted of. This is a land of fruits.

Now, if the Society had invited the ladies of Oregon to assist their department would have been better filled. There would have been no rest to [illegible]. I do not mean that there is any difference between the ladies of this State in industry and skill, but the ambition of the ladies here lies in another direction, which I have not yet learned but that they are ambitious and busy.

The silk and beet-sugar interests were represented, and so flattering were the results of the efforts in their production that it is safe to predict that they will rival the grape culture, and that California will in a few years not boast of everything, but become rich by her silks, sugars and wines. NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of those horrible life-destroying maladies so that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Weakness, the consequence of self-abuse; This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots. Uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never failed of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use. To Dr. Gibbon, sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus awards, certificates dupe the unwary. Some of these self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are blacksmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. P. O. Box 952.

REMEMBER P. O. BOX 952 ON THE LETTER. Consultation FREE.

Persons ordering will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

NOTICE.

HOLDERS OF TICKETS to the GIFT CONCERT in aid of the Mercantile Library Association, are hereby notified, that the Concert is postponed until Monday, October 31st, 1870.

Unexpected interferences have operated to make this delay necessary to accomplish the result of freeing the Library from debt, without recourse to other privileges granted by act of the Legislature, passed February 15, 1870.

This is positively the only postponement which will be made. The Concert will take place on the day above named, commencing at nine o'clock, A. M., and to continue until all the gifts have been awarded.

The funds already in bank are considerably more than sufficient to insure the successful completion of the contract with the public.

The sale of tickets will positively close on Friday, the 28th day of October, 1870.

All tickets remaining unsold at that time will be withdrawn from sale and cancelled. They will be advertised by their numbers, on the 29th day of October, 1870, in one or more of the daily papers of this city. Any diminution thus made in the number of tickets to be drawn, will not affect the number or amount of gifts. They will be as heretofore advertised, to wit: 625 gifts amounting in all to $500,000 gold.

Ticket holders residing out of San Francisco will receive duly accredited lists of the awards of Gifts, which will also be published in the leading San Francisco daily papers, on the 1st November, 1870.

Delivery of gifts will commence November 21, 1870, at the Office, No. 318 California Street, to all parties presenting tickets to which gifts have been awarded. All gifts awarded to non-residents will be held to their order and for their account.

THE RIVERSIDE

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION!

OF

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON,

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS to their Stock.

Application for ONE HUNDRED SHARES was made before the books were opened, and a large number of shares have been taken.

The following extracts from the Oregonian and Bulletin will convey a good idea of the plan and workings of the Association, the location of the land, etc., etc.

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

This association of whose organization we gave an account a few days since, is now ready to dispose of shares. As it is with one exception, (the Portland Homestead Association,) the pioneer organization of that kind in this city, it may be well enough to state what are its purposes, and the manner in which it is proposed to conduct its operations. The purposes of these Homestead Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word. They are dependent for the profits of their investment upon the natural advance in the value of their lands, consequent upon the co-operation of many individual shareholders—and the advance on values of all surrounding lands by reason of the expansion of population and demand for room outside of, but still near, the city. The Riverside Homestead Association has a fraction over one hundred and twenty acres of land situated just south of Brooklyn on the east side of the river, the nearest boundary line being about one mile from the ferry landing at East Portland. The tract lies in one strip along the Wallamet river, half a mile in length, and another strip along the Oregon and California railroad, half a mile in length, the two strips being connected near the middle by two rows of blocks (with a street between them,) the whole forming a figure not unlike the letter H. It is divided into 74 blocks, 200 feet square (with streets running at right angles) and 80 fractional lots, along the river front. The shares number 600, worth $60 per share. It will be seen that a share thus represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 80 fractional lots. The 80 fractional shares are to be sold off at the proper time for the benefit of the Association, shareholders coming in for the proceeds in proportion to the number of shares held. When all shares are taken and the Association shall determine to do it, the choice of lots and blocks will be put up at auction to the highest bidder, the proceeds of such sales, after deducting the original price of shares or lots, to be divided equally among the whole number of shares. Thus, if a person wants a particular lot or block, and is willing to pay $100 or $500 premium (more or less as the case may be) he pays it and takes the lot or block as his individual property, the premium being divided among the whole number of shareholders. It will be seen, therefore, that everything is co-operative, and all interests mutual. No man can make a dollar out of it without also making a dollar for every other shareholder. There is no chance for loss, unless the property, by some chance, should [illegible] far below the first actual cost. Whether this is liable to happen in the case of this particular tract of land must be judged by each for himself; but considering the steady and rapid advance on real estate in this city and neighborhood, and at East Portland and vicinity, for the last year or two, it seems hardly [illegible] values to go back.

In the Riverside Association all proper precautions seem to have been taken to guard against monopolies of shares. No person is allowed to buy more than the number of shares [illegible] three blocks, or twenty-four lots, and votes in determining the operations of the Association are restricted in the same manner. The buyers of shares may pay down $50 per share, which will exempt them from all assessments, or they may pay $15 quarterly with an [illegible] of $5 per share, payable with the first installment, being liable in this latter case to another (and only one other) assessment of $3 per share. Upon the payment of the shares in full, with the [illegible] as above, the holder is entitled to his title [illegible] and his proportion of all the profits [illegible] from all sources. No officer of the Association receives any pay for services except the Secretary, who gets $25 per month; so it will be seen that the expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying along the river is a high plateau, nearly level, about 60 to 90 feet above the water. There is no part of the front row of blocks but commands a splendid view of Portland and the river for miles up and down stream. That part of the tract lying along the railroad is, every foot of it, of the richest loam soil and adapted to gardening purposes. A beautiful little stream of pure water runs through almost the entire length of this wing of the tract, affording the means of irrigation, and power sufficient to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract. There is not a waste lot or fractional lot in the entire tract. Under all these advantages, it would seem impossible that there should be any chance of loss to shareholders. Within a year each shareholder, if he choose, may get a perfect title to as many lots as his shares may represent, or he may continue his interest undivided, with the Association while the organization may exist.—Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

We have been led to make these remarks from the fact that the subject of making homesteads on the outskirts of this city and East Portland, is being thoroughly discussed here among all classes, and one [illegible] "Riverside," just south of East Portland—has already been established. The site selected is a tract of land lying a little over a mile south of the ferry landing. It is shaped like the letter H, one side of which, a half mile in length, borders on the river.

From this portion of the homestead, which is elevated but a trifle above the other prong of the H, but is still forty or fifty feet above the river, can be had an extensive view of Portland, East Portland, the shipping and the Willamette river for several miles. The land is very fertile, and is partly covered with light fir timber. A tract of land just wide enough for two rows of blocks, with an avenue between them, connects the west prong of the H (which has already been described) with that of the east. This last tract of land is in a beautiful little valley which is now under a high state of cultivation. Through its whole length runs a trout brook, the water of which is clear as crystal. With a hydraulic ram the Association proposes to have water conveyed through pipes to every portion of the homestead.—Daily Bulletin.
